Metropole Hotel and Entrance to West Pier, Brighton.
The palatial hotels which flank this part of the world-famous beach are themselves one of the sights of Brighton. But the principal attraction is the sea itself which makes "Dr. Brighton" so healthgiving so bracing and so beautiful. A full sea, fresh and strong; it is delightful in the sunshine, awe-inspiring on a stormy day.

Yes I have your stumpy. Did not know you had brought one. Come again on Thurs; morning & spend the day, I should love it.
